

“ISKA Amateur Combat Grappling”

Summary

1. The time of the round is 3 minutes. The match shall consist of 2 Rounds. The interval between each round is 1 minute. In the case of a tournament there will only be one round of 4 min for all preliminary rounds until finals, which will be regulation 2 rounds of 3 minutes with a 1minute interval.
2. The refereeing of the match is carried out by; one chairman, one referee and two sub-referees.
3. A mouth piece and a protection cup must always be worn. Knee-pads, shin-guards, and headgear authorized by ISKA must also be worn. Feet must be bare. Pants and tights suitable for fight must be worn. The use of Vaseline, oil, or similar substances on the body, face, or hair is forbidden. The nails must be cut close.
4. The competitors are allowed to have three persons in their corner and only one chief corner man can enter the ring before the match. If a corner man enters the ring or touches the competitors during the fight, his competitor shall be judged the loser.
5. There are weight restrictions as follows:
 - Featherweight (60.0kg or less)
 - Lightweight (65.0kg or less)
 - Welterweight (70.0kg or less)
 - Middleweight (76.0kg or less)
 - Light-heavyweight (83.0kg or less)
 - Cruiserweight (91.0kg or less)
 - Heavyweight (110.0kg or less)
 - Super-heavyweight (110.0kg or more)
6. The ring shall be a square type. Mats, instead of the ring, may be used.
7. Amateur mixed martial arts style gloves (open-finger and palm style) authorised by ISKA must be worn. Any alterations in the shape of gloves are forbidden.
8. Bandage may be used only for the purpose of protection to the knuckle area. The tape used for fixing the bandage must not be 1worn on the knuckle area. The use of tape, instead of bandage, on the knuckles must be three pieces or less. After the bandage or tape is worn, it must be checked and signed by the ISKA.
9. The determination of the winner of any match shall be made according to the following:

- a. Knock out (KO): A competitor goes down and does not show his willingness to continue the fight in a standing position by the end of a count of five called by the referee. The opponent must wait at the neutral corner during the count down or until the referee gives further direction. If the opponent does not wait, the referee shall stop his count. In such a case the referee shall start the countdown after the competitor returns to the neutral corner.
- b. Technical knock out (TKO):
 - i. A competitor goes down three times in a round (three knock down system).
 - ii. The referee can stop the fight due to a competitor's damage, injury, or loss of will to continue the fight. It may be stopped by a competitor's corner, by the act of "throwing in the towel."
 - iii. The attending medical practitioner directs the referee to stop the contest if, in the opinion of the medical practitioner, a contestant is exhausted or injured to such an extent as to be unable to defend himself or to continue the fight.
- c. IPPON or Submission (S): Submission by a competitor shall be expressed either verbally or by tapping two times or more on the mat or on the opponent's body with a hand or a foot.
- d. Technical IPPON or technical submission (TS): When a submission is almost effective, the referee shall call "Catch" and ask the competitor whether he will give up or not. If the competitor does not defend against the submission hold, or does not respond to the question or screams in pain, the referee may judge the submission hold complete, and will stop the fight.
- e. Disqualification (DQ): When competitors hit foul, they shall receive a caution, and a lot of cautions shall equal disqualification. If the foul is too wicked, the competitor shall be immediately disqualified.
- f. Decision: When rounds are over, striking points and grappling points are summed, and the competitor who earns more points shall be declared the winner. In a tournament with only one round, if there is a draw at the end of regular time, then the judges will be asked to make a decision indicating red or blue fighter. The two sub-referees shall judge striking points as follows. Each fighter shall be given ten (10) points for striking techniques at the start of each round, from which points shall be deducted by the two (2) sub-referees on the following basis:
 - 10 – 10 an even match (both fighter's offence and defence are even)
 - 10 – 9 when one fighter is better than the other in offense, but the difference is subtle. (More aggressive strikes)

10 – 8 when one fighter is slightly better than the other in offense (more effective striking)

10 – 7 when a fighter is clearly better than the other in offense (knock down with no damage or almost to knock down)

10 – 6 when it is obvious that one is much better than the other in offense. (Knock down with some damage)

10 – 5 when one fighter is overwhelmingly superior to the other. (Near KO or TKO)

10. The Referee shall judge grappling points as follows.

1 point – to the competitor who gets a takedown

1 point – to the competitor who reverses his opponent

1 point – to the competitor who escapes to close guard or stands from a disadvantaged position

1 point – to the opponent if a competitor pulls guard without attempting a sweep or submission

1 point – to the opponent and one (1) caution to the competitor who pulls guard without contact and without attempting a sweep or submit.
